Constitution for 2025-2026 Season

1. Fees and Prizes

The annual re-entry fee is $300, however prize money generated from the annual fee, trades and free agent signings throughout the season is broken down as follows:

- 50% goes towards end of season prizes
- 50% will be placed in the pool's "bank" for revenue sharing purposes.

End of regular season prizes will be awarded as follows:

- 1st place 45%
- 2nd place 27%
- 3rd place 18%
- 4th place 10%

2. Draft Order (Lottery)

The order in the annual draft is determined by a combination of a lottery and previous season standings. Subject to the results of the draft lottery (see below) and effective as of the 2019-20 season, starting with the 2nd round and for every round thereafter, franchises pick in the reverse order of the previous year's final standings. That is the 1st place franchise will draft last; the 2nd place franchise will draft second last and so on culminating with the last franchise drafting 1st.

Draft lottery for the 1st Round:

Effective at the end of the 2023-24 season, the 5 franchises that did not finish in the money are subject to a weighted lottery to determine the draft order of the first 5 draft picks of Round 1. The draft order for the remaining franchises will be in the reverse order of the previous year's final standings. The lottery odds for the first overall pick for franchises finishing 5th through 9th are follows:

Rank Finished	New Lottery Odds
9 th	35%
8 th	25%
7 th	17%
6 th	13%
5 th	10%

NOTE: Franchises cannot move up or down more than 2 positions from where they finished.

Draft Lottery Process:

A spin of the wheel will be used to determine the order of the first 3 franchises for Round 1 of the draft. The wheel url is <https://wheelofnames.com/>. A list on franchise owner names will be input into the text box based on the lottery odds table above. The names will be shuffled, and the wheel will spin and stop on the name of the franchise owner to be first to draft in Round 1. All occurrences of the winning franchise owner's name will be removed from the wheel and the wheel will spin again and stop on the name of the franchise owner to draft 2nd in Round 1, and so on until all names are exhausted.

Player Draft

Each franchise will be awarded 14 draft rounds, however the number of draft rounds may vary for each franchise due to the trading of draft picks throughout the season. In addition, owners can draft up to a maximum of 2 more rounds if three or less Protected Prospects are retained. If four prospects are retained, only 1 additional round is awarded; if five or more prospects are retained, no additional round is awarded.

Player Eligibility

A player is eligible to be drafted by a franchise provided that he has either been drafted by an NHL team or is currently playing in the NHL.

Constitution for 2025-2026 Season

3. Points

Only the points obtained while a player is on the active roster will count towards the franchise's point total. Standings are published and communicated weekly on Mondays.

- Player: 1 point per goal and 1 point per assist
- Goalie: 3 points per shutout
2 points per win
1 point per goal and 1 point per assist

4. Franchise Roster

- Effective 2024-25 season, franchises must have 18 active players at all times, whereby the weekly roster must consist of:
 - 1 Goaltender (mandatory)
 - 2 options for the forward/defensemen split:
 - 5 Defensemen and 12 Forwards
 - or
 - 6 Defensemen and 11 Forwards
- Each franchise will be subject to a minimum number of players on their rosters, inclusive of LTIRs and subject to the salary cap guidelines. No Franchise will be permitted to have less than the 30 players at any time during the season.
- Note: any transaction causing a Franchise Owner to default on the minimum will be deemed to be null and void unless rectified by 12pm on the Friday of the week in which the transaction was completed / announced.

Submission of Active Roster

Upon completion of the draft, each franchise owner will be given a period of approximately two (2) weeks to submit their active rosters, unless another arrangement has been agreed upon (i.e. draft is held after the season begins).

Roster Moves

- Franchise owners may elect to replace an active player with a benched player prior to the first game played on Friday by sending an email to all franchise owners. All moves must be made before the start of the first scheduled game for that day. Any move after the deadline will not be accepted.
- Points are awarded to newly active players starting from Monday night's games. Points cease to be awarded for players designated to the "bench" as of Sunday night's games.

5. Protected Roster

- Each Franchise owner can protect up to 15 players, excluding Protected Prospects. Franchises will be able to protect anywhere from 15 to 21 players depending on player eligibility (refer to next section regarding prospects).
- One (1) week prior to draft day, each Franchise owner must submit a final protect list of players. No trades will be permitted after the FINAL list is submitted, however all dropped players will be eligible to Offer Sheets Bids (see below).

6. Tiebreakers

Tiebreakers are used to determine a winner from among contests that result in a tie. Typically, several tie-breaker criteria can and will be applied in order to unambiguously determine a winner. When all else fails, the traditional coin flip will determine the winner.

7. Dropped Players Offer Sheet Bid

Once all the FINAL protect lists are published, a franchise owner may elect to "sign" an unprotected player by tendering a draft pick "offer". Other franchise owners, including the owner who initially dropped the player, can submit a higher draft pick "offer" in attempt to "steal-and-sign" that player. The owner offering the highest draft pick will acquire the player, while the owner having dropped that player will receive that draft pick. More details...

- You can only make 1 offer on a player so make it your best and final offer.
- Once an owner calls out a player, that player is available to be counter-bid upon. If there are no counterbids then that owner wins the offer.
- When it's your turn, you can bid on a previous called player or call out a new player; HOWEVER, if you decide to pass when it's your turn, then you can no longer bid or call out any other players from that point onwards.
- The owner winning the bid and acquiring the unprotected player will NO LONGER BE REQUIRED to drop a previously protected player. The player is simply added to the existing protected roster at a charge of $30.
- The draft pick is from the current year's draft, please ensure you own the draft pick.
 - There is a MAXIMUM of 2 winning bids per owner
 - In order to ensure top players are not signed for low draft picks, a grouping of players will be based on Dobber's projections for the upcoming season.
 - Goalies and Forwards over 70 points and Defensemen over 35 points will require a minimum bid in the top 6 rounds. All other players require a bid in the top 10 rounds.
- If the owner of the dropped player is bidding, he may elect to either simply match the offer of the highest bid or bid higher in an attempt to secure the winning bid.
- If the owner of the winning bid is the same owner having dropped the player, the draft pick offered will be removed from the draft order and process.

8. Dropping a Roster Player

Each Franchise will be permitted to drop one (1) or more player(s) from his roster at any time at no cost provided that both of the following conditions are met:

- a) The Min/Max number of players is respected at all times
- b) The dropping of the player is pursuant to and in conjunction with a transaction (i.e. FA signing, Trade, Waiver Draft, reactivation of an LTIR)

9. Player Designation - Defense vs Forward – The Grandfather Clause

Any undrafted players will be assigned a position based on the NHL site and/or other reputable NHL Hockey Site. That player's designation remains in effect for the entire season until reset, if necessary, at the beginning of the next season. If the Player is protected by a Franchise Owner, the player retains the designation previously set when the player was acquired (i.e. Grandfather Clause). If a player is traded during the season, then the Grandfather Clause does not apply and the player may be subject to a position adjustment.

10. Protected Prospects

- The purpose is to give everyone the opportunity to draft young prospects and protect them while they spend their early years in the minors aspiring to develop into superstars.
- A maximum of 6 players satisfying the Protected Prospects Eligibility criteria are eligible to be protected in addition to the Protected Roster.
- Franchise owners will be awarded up to a maximum of 2 additional draft rounds if three or less Protected Prospects are retained. If four prospects are retained, only 1 additional round is awarded; if five or more prospects are retained, no additional round is awarded.
- Protected Prospects Eligibility Criteria
 - defensemen must have had less than 20 points in any given NHL season
 - forward must have less than 40 points in any given NHL season
 - goalie must have played less than 30 games in any given NHL season

Constitution for 2025-2026 Season

11. Salaries and Salary Cap

- Effective 2013-14 Hockey Pool Season, the salary structure will be changed to go from "Actual Players' Salary" to "Salary Cap Hit" from the preceding NHL season. A player's Cap Hit will be limited to the published Cap Hit to the team for which the said player plays for. Retained salaries from another team pursuant to a trade or other NHL transition will not form part of the Cap Hit. (e.g. Luongo, Kessel, Yandle and Lucic 2015-16 Cap hits).
- Franchise Owners will have to adhere to both a salary cap Upper and Lower limit, the amounts of which are as follows:

Salary Cap (in Millions of USD)	2023-24	2024-25	2025-26	2026-27
Upper	$136.2	$141.0	$148.2	$159.8
Lower	$113.1	$116.5	$122.4	$134.9

- Effective 2020-21 season, salaries for protected prospects will not count towards the salary cap.
- Salaries for the current season are based on the players' Cap Hit from the previous season.
- Players who do not have any previous published contract or no published salary will have a minimum Cap Hit set at $975,000.
- Players that previously played in the NHL and did not play or did not have a contract in the NHL the previous season, will be assigned the last Cap Hit on record. Dominik Hasek, Ray Emery and Jaromir Jagr would be a few examples.
- In the event that there is a situation that is not covered by any of the constitution associated with salaries or Cap Hit, we will refer to the magazines and/or websites for reference and deal with the situation at the draft table on a case-by-case basis.
- A master list of the current season's Cap Hits will be provided at the beginning of each season and made available before the draft for reference. This list will be updated periodically, however Franchise Owners will have until October 31st of the current season to report any discrepancies and/or request a revision to the master list. After October 31st the Cap Hits as per the master file will be deemed fixed for the season.
- IMPORTANT: It is forbidden to surpass the salary cap! In the unlikely event that an owner inadvertently surpasses the salary cap upper or lower limit, he will have until noon Friday of that same week to rectify the situation otherwise the transaction causing the infraction will be denied and/or reversed (i.e. draft pick, trade, free agent signing, waiver draft, etc.).

12. Long-Term Injured Reserve

- Cost: $15 per player placed on LTIR.
- Every franchise is granted the option of placing, at any time, an injured player on Long Term Disability ("LTIR") whereby that player's salary does not count against the salary cap for the duration of the of the time that the player is on LTIR. Each franchise owner can exercise the LTIR option up to three (3) times in any given season.
- A player from your roster is eligible for LTIR, if the player is injured, unable to play or not playing for any reason whatsoever including but not limited to:
 - placed on waivers
 - being sent down to the minors or healthy scratch
 - transferred or elects to play in another league
 - receives an NHL imposed suspension of 10 or more games
- Once an injured player is placed on LTIR, the player must remain on the LTIR for a minimum duration of twenty-one (21) days and is deemed to be inactive and cannot be traded. A player on LTIR can be re-instated once the minimum twenty-one (21) day duration has been met and provided the franchise has available cap space. LTIR duration will commence on the day the owner designates a player for LTIR.
- Points will begin accumulating only after the 21-day period has elapsed.
- NOTE: In a shortened season (i.e. COVID-19), LTIR minimum duration will be reduced to 14 days, therefore replacing the 21 day limitation in all cases mentioned above.

Constitution for 2025-2026 Season

13. Free Agents

- Cost: minimum starting fee of $10 for an uncontested free agent. An incremental $10 is added for each franchise owner interested in bidding for the free agent player. For example, if 4 owners are "IN", the bidding minimum is $40. Once you declare that you are "IN", you cannot withdraw from the bidding.
- The deadline for announcing a free agent is the second Friday following the NHL trade deadline. For this season, the Franchise Pool deadline is Friday March 20th, 2026.
- 6 Free Agent picks are awarded to each Franchise Owner (unless you have lost/acquired FA picks via trades). Only players not drafted in the Hockey Pool and drafted in the NHL are eligible for Free Agency (i.e. you cannot sign a player that is in the Juniors, Europe etc. unless they have been drafted by an NHL team).
- Based on the current week's standings (published on Mondays), you can now only bid on a free agent if you are tied or below the standings of the Franchise Owner who called the free agent. The purpose and intent is to help the lower standing owners improve their franchises in an attempt to catch the higher standing owners.
 - EXCEPTION: If the free agent is a prospect, either playing in the NHL or their respective farm teams, then EVERYONE is eligible to bid for the free agent irrespective of standings.
 - FREE AGENT FRENZY: free agents bidding is open for EVERYONE from the time the draft ends up to until the first standings are published, usually after the first full week of hockey, roughly 2 weeks.
- Free Agents must be announced by end of day Wednesday of the current week in order for the player to be eligible for the current week. Only FAs announced Saturday through Wednesday inclusive are eligible for the current week's roster, which is defined as Monday to Sunday. FAs announced on Thursdays and Fridays only become eligible for the following week's roster, the only exception being at the beginning of the year until after the first week's roster is set. The deadline will be strictly enforced.
- Once a Free Agent is called, the remaining franchise owners have 48 hours to respond whether they are "IN" or "OUT".
- IMPORTANT: if a Free Agent is called after 6pm, the 48 hour clock begins at 9am the following morning or Monday morning if called after Wednesday midnight. If a Free Agent is announced prior to Wednesday midnight, exceptionally this rule implies less than 48 hours as responses must be in before noon on Fridays.
- If a Free Agent goes uncontested (i.e. no other Franchise Owner is "IN"), the franchise owner who called the FA gets the player for $10. If there is at least one other franchise owner who interested in the FA player, then a silent bidding process begins where all franchise owners who are "IN" must submit their bids to Claudio (or Giac if Claudio is "IN").
- In the event of a tie in the bidding process, the FA player is awarded to franchise owner using the following tie-breaker (in the order below):
 - the owner who called the Free Agent gets the player
 - the owner lowest in the standings based on the previous week's cumulative total
 - the franchise owner who submitted the first bid
- Signed FA players automatically start on your roster at zero active points irrespective of the NHL points acquired prior to the FA signing. However, current week's points will count. Note this does not apply to the beginning of the season until after the first week's roster is set.

Constitution for 2025-2026 Season

14. Trades

- Cost: $5 per franchise (irrespective of the number of players being traded).
- The deadline is the Friday following the NHL trade deadline. For this season, the Franchise Pool deadline is Friday March 13th, 2026.
- Trades are permitted at any time after the NHL Draft (usually in June) up to one month prior to the NHL trading deadline (usually in February-March).
- One of the owners involved in the trade must announce it to all franchise owners via email prior to Friday game time of the first game of the day.
- Points accumulated by a player while on that franchise's active roster as of the last published standings will remain with the franchise when the player is traded to another franchise.
- Points accumulated by a player after the published standings and during the week of the trade will only start counting as of the day the player is acquired by the new franchise. Any points accumulated from the last published standings up to the trade day will be considered as inactive points, regardless of whether the player is active or farm status.
- Trades can be made on a many-to-1 ratio and may include future draft picks and/or current season's free agent picks. Future seasons' free agent picks cannot be traded.
- Conditional trade clauses for players' performances will be allowed provided the conditions are clearly defined at the time of the trade and there are no objections from any owner.
- All trades are at the discretion of the franchise owners involved. However, any trade may be overturned or denied if it is deemed too "one-sided" and/or may alter the outcome of the pool.

15. Waiver Draft

- A waiver draft will be held on Wednesday December 17th, 2025 before 12 noon.
- Only the last 5 ranked franchises will be allowed to participate in the waiver draft based on the previous week's standings. Each of these 5 franchises will be granted the privilege of drafting 1 player from the pool of free agent players.
- There will be a freeze on Free Agent signings the week prior to the waiver draft in order to accommodate the waiver draft selection. The constitution governing the salary cap and player eligibility will apply. The waiver draft privilege cannot be traded, however the player picked up in the waiver draft may be traded as per the constitution governing player trades. There is no cost for this draft and selection of a player is optional.

16. Franchise Owner Replacement

In the unlikely event that a franchise owner should decide to leave the pool, the first plan of action is to hold a GM meeting to determine the fate of the franchise and its players. There are two options, in order of preference:

1. Replace the owner - via an auction or a set price - with all proceeds divided equally amongst the remaining owners, or
2. Dissolve the franchise - a dispersal draft should be conducted in reverse order of finish from the most recent completed season, thus the lowest place franchise getting the first pick. The dispersal draft will include draft picks as assets (i.e. as if they were players). The dispersal draft ends when either everyone has passed or the entire team and/or draft picks have been taken.

NOTE: The dispersal draft must be held before the regular draft and the dispersal draft order does not necessarily have to be the same order as the regular draft which is determined via a weighted-average lottery.

Dispersal Draft 2019

Joe D. has elected to leave the Franchise Pool effective 2019-2020 season, therefore his team will be dissolved and a dispersal draft will be conducted in reverse order of finish from the aggregated standings of the past 12 seasons. The dispersal draft will be 3 rounds and everyone must select a player, which they are free to protect or drop when the final roster is submitted. The draft pick cannot be traded, however the player drafted can be dealt in a trade. The dispersal draft will be held via email starting in August. The draft order is: Mike / Giac / Claudio / Joe / Steve / Louis / Johnny / Paolo / Nick.

Constitution for 2025-2026 Season

APPENDIX A – Miscellaneous

Draft Order - Inaugural Season

The snake draft (i.e. first to last; last to first) order was determined by a random lottery which consisted of 26 rounds. The 26th round was reserved for selection of the NHL team. The order was as follows: 1. Nick Malandrucolo / 2. Joe Laranjo / 3. Joe Di Tomaso / 4. Paolo Zaccheo / 5. Johnny Palleria / 6. Steve Karaminas / 7. Louis Cortina

League Expansion

- In 1996/97 season, Claudio Masella joined our pool. Claudio built his franchise by drafting 15 players from the list of unprotected players and was awarded the 4th pick in the draft order.
- In 2007/08 season, Giacomo D'Agostino and Mike Tempone joined our pool. The expansion fee of $900 per franchise was broken down as follows: $550 (11 prior seasons x $50) was distributed equally to existing owners. The remaining $350 went towards revenue sharing pot which was equivalent to an equal share of the existing pot (i.e. at the end of 2006/07 season, the pot was at $2738 or $342.25 for each of the 8 owners).
- On Draft Day,
 - Part 1: Giac and Mike took turns drafting 8 players each from the list of unprotected players only. In a random draw, Giac was picked to go first, Mike second.
 - Part 2: all 10 franchise owners then drafted a team. Based on random draw, the order was as follows:

1. Joe Di Tomaso	6. Johnny Palleria
2. Giacomo D'Agostino	7. Steve Karaminas
3. Joe Laranjo	8. Louis Cortina
4. Claudio Masella	9. Michael Tempone
5. Nick Malandrucolo	10. Paolo Zaccheo
 - Part 3: six (6) draft rounds whereby all NHL players were eligible. The previous season's last 3 place finishers went first, followed by the 2 new owners, then the remaining owners in reverse order of previous season's final standings. Based on weighted-average lottery for the last 3 place finishers and a random draw for the new owners, the draft order was as follows:

1. Joe Di Tomaso	6. Steve Karaminas
2. Louis Cortina	7. Nick Malandrucolo
3. Joe Laranjo	8. Johnny Palleria
4. Michael Tempone	9. Paolo Zaccheo
5. Giacomo D'Agostino	10. Claudio Masella
 - Part 4: Giac and Mike took turns drafting 7 players each from list of all NHL players. Here again, Giac went first, followed by Mike.
 - Part 5: five (5) draft rounds for all 10 owners in same order as above.
 - Part 6: up to 2 additional rounds for owners who did not protect under-22 players.
 - Part 7: 10 draft rounds for our FAP Pool. Based on random draw, the snake order was as follows:

1. Joe Laranjo	6. Steve Karaminas
2. Joe Di Tomaso	7. Paolo Zaccheo
3. Louis Cortina	8. Michael Tempone
4. Johnny Palleria	9. Giacomo D'Agostino
5. Claudio Masella	10. Nick Malandrucolo
